

Jeffrey Winick

Dr. Jeffrey Winick, Ph.D. lives in the Boston, Massachusetts area and is the Director of Clinical Affairs at FUJIFILM Healthcare Americas where he leads the team responsible for Sponsor and Investigator Initiated Studies (IIS) and as well as technology evaluation.

Dr. Winick's interests are in biomarkers and biomarker related algorithms as applied across Chronic Liver Disease.

Dr. Winick earned his doctorate at Northwestern University in Evanston, IL and was a HHMI postdoctoral fellow at The Rockefeller University in the lab of Dr. Jeffrey M. Friedman MD Ph.D. in Human Molecular Genetics.

Dr. Winick has been in industry for 22 years working at Motorola Life Sciences, Amersham Biosciences, GE Healthcare, and for the last 9 years at FUJIFILM Wako Diagnostics. His career has spanned working in Research and Development, Product Commercialization, Leading Scientific Support teams, Evaluation of and management of Sponsor Studies and IIS in molecular imaging and serum based biomarkers and senior leadership representing Clinical/Medical functions.