

Call for Y-ILCA Committee Members Open Positions

Dear Young Investigator Community,

On behalf of the International Liver Cancer Association's Nominations Committee, we are pleased to open the call for Y-ILCA Committee members' positions. We are looking for 3 new Y-ILCA members to join the Y-ILCA Committee this year.

To be eligible to the Y-ILCA Committee, the candidates shall carefully read the requirements below: required to apply:

- 1) Men and women below 40 years old (in case of maternity/paternity leave, the eligibility age is calculated by deducting 12 months per child from the applicant's actual age)
- 2) Be an active ILCA member.
- 3) Track record of involvement in clinical care or basic/translational/clinical research or educational activities on primary liver cancer

In keeping with the ethos of ILCA, the aim will be to appoint a committee that is diverse in terms of geography, gender balance and the term for these members will be three years (January 2024 – January 2027).

The Y-ILCA group works in different tasks for ILCA, among them:

- 1) Meet virtually each other at least 2 times per year outside the ILCA meeting and one time per year during the ILCA Annual Conference in September
- 2) Provide twice a year a newsletter dedicated to Young Investigator
- 3) Provide a journal club of the recent up to date publications on primary liver cancers for the ILCA newsletter.
- 4) Propose communication and network activities dedicated to young investigators during the ILCA meeting but also outside the ILCA Annual Conference
- 5) Help organize the Young Investigator session in the ILCA Annual Conference
- 6) Create and manage a young investigators page on the ILCA website.
- 7) Provide advice to the EC on any matter that may affect or involve young investigators.

We would be very pleased to welcome you to the Y-ILCA Committee and we are confident that your involvement would be beneficial to our young investigator community and network.

We are looking forward to receiving your candidacies!
